Meetings:

Unfortunately, the resignation of the chairperson (Mr. Byoung-Chan MIN, the director of the National Museum of Korea) at the beginning of the year halted the committee's activities all year long. The members asked the vice-chair, the director of the National Archives, to take the position, but no one was available.

Since the BSI is an NGO, the governmental institutions and officials do not see the necessity or liberty to lead an NGO. Perhaps, the other reason for this reluctant participation is that the Republic of Korea has not accessioned the Hague convention.
